FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JANUARY 25, 1886.

The Thursday evening receptions of Mrs. Judge Wm. Lindsay have been the most elegant entertainments given in the city this season.

The meeting of the Ingleside Club held, by an invitation of Miss Pickett, at the Capital Hotel on Wednesday evening, was the most brilliant social event of the season so far. Most of those present were in mask, the costumes being very beautiful indeed.

The presence of Hon. Richard Collins, author of Collins' History of Kentucky, at the Teachers' meeting to be held at the Opera House in Frankfort, on Saturday, Feb. 27, 1886, will be an attractive feature in the meeting. We are informed that this eminent gentleman will not only be present, but will take part in the meeting by reading a number of well-selected extracts from some hitherto unpublished Kentucky literature in his possession. Mr. Collins is a native Kentuckian, and has always been the friend of the schools, and, being a cultivated man himself, knows what the children of the State need in the way of better schools and a higher standard of mental training.

On Saturday Postmaster G. R. Rodman, acting under authority received by telegram from the Second Assistant Postmaster General, rented the store-room of Mr. V. Kuitertman, No. 231 St. Clair street, and to-night will remove the Post-office to it. By the removal the office will be brought nearer the center of the business portion of the city, the Postmaster and his clerical force have much more comfortable quarters, and there will be no steps to go up or down to get into the office in slippery weather. The change is a first class one. The boxes will be arranged in a V shape, with the stamp and general delivery department immediately in front of the entrance and the money order department further back.

There seems to be no let up in the Capital-Yeoman war—the former having the State printing and the latter wanting it. In order to prevent the shedding of blood we would suggest a compromise. Let the Legislature create the office of State Proof Reader and elect the Yeoman to that position. Judging from the statements of that paper, such an office has become a necessity. This would give both papers a chance to dip into the State Treasury and restore harmony to the Democratic family circle.

The Capital insists that letting out the Public Printing by contract is very wrong, as did also the Yeoman when it had the printing, giving as a reason that a Republican might be the fortunate bidder for the work. Well, as both our neighbors have charged each other with gouging and swindling the State in every way possible, it strikes us that it would be a first rate idea to give the printing to some one of the opposite political faith, as in that case every Democratic official would watch him so close he would be afraid to attempt to defraud the Treasury, even were he so inclined, and the State would be benefited by the change.

But one great argument in favor of the contract system is, that the man who gets the printing at the lowest price will not be compelled to write up in his paper every five-cent politician who comes to the Legislature (in many cases because no good man in the county wants the position) as a first class state man in order to secure his vote. The tremendous strain upon his conscience would thus be relieved and his chance of reaching Heaven be materially increased, and we have no reason to believe that an editor will certainly reach that mansion not made with hands when death shall place a full stop to his paragraph of life, even though his Democracy be handed down from Thomas Jefferson, wrapped in the Resolutions of '98, a rooster blown in the glass, and tied up with a tariff for revenue only.

Capt. Sandy Ponce's new boat, the Hibernia, which has been lying at Madison, Indiana, waiting for the river to get clear of ice so that she can come into this trade, is expected here today.

The lifeless body of Mr. Pat. Downey, a well known Irishman, was found Thursday morning lying near the railroad, where it crosses the road leading to his home about a mile from this city, on the Glens Creek pike. He had been a hard drinker for many years, was in town on Wednesday, got pretty full and started home in the afternoon. A neighbor picked him up on the road near the Peblee-Indiana Institute and took him to the gate leading into his farm about 7 o'clock. The toll-gate keeper heard him going down the road talking to himself, which was the last heard of him until Thursday morning, when Mr. John Baker, who was going to his house to work for him, found his dead body lying by the roadside, where it is supposed he fell and froze to death. A Coroner Physician was notified and held an inquest over the body, the jury returning a verdict of death from exposure.

It was rumored on the street yesterday that Prof. John R. Proctor, State Geologist, had left town to avoid an investigation of his office by a legislative committee. The report grew out of the fact that a resolution was introduced in the Senate on Wednesday by Senator Bowls, of Warren, requiring Prof. Proctor to report what disposition had been made of $34,000 expended by the Geological Department last year. The facts are that Mr. Proctor left about two weeks ago for the East on business which will result in great benefit to the State, the particulars of which will be made known on his return. His going was with the full knowledge and consent of the Governor, and not for the purpose of dodging any investigation the Legislature might order. The report does great injustice to a high toned honorable gentleman, who, if he were here would need no one to defend him.

Personal.

Mrs. Mary Page who has been very ill for the past week is improving.

Mrs. Jos. L. Rodman left Thursday morning for a visit to friends in Louisville.

Mr. Milton Hitt, of Kansas City, Missouri, visited friends in this city on Monday.

Mr. Sandy Hord, of Aurora, Illinois, has been visiting his parents in this city this week.

Mr. George Clark, of Greenville, Mississippi, is visiting relatives in this city this week.

Mrs. Mintie Stephens is lying very ill at the residence of her mother, corner of Cross and Logan streets.

Dr. Jas. Rodman, of Hopkinsville, who has been visiting relatives here, left for home Thursday morning.

Mr. Keelon Guines and family, of Bridgeport, left Monday for Western Missouri, where they will reside in future.

Mrs. Annie Crutcher returned Monday afternoon from an extended visit to relatives in Olney, Illinois, and Louisville.

Mr. Warren Huffman, of Hopewell, Indiana, who has been visiting his cousin, Mr. George Wheat, in this city, left Saturday morning for home.

Mrs. Mahala Merchant has been lying at the point of death for the past week, at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. C. W. Merchant, in South Frankfort.

BORN.

In Bourbon county, on Wednesday, January 6th, 1886, to Mr. John A. Jamison and wife, a daughter—MATTIE MILLON.

Capt. Sanford Galt slipped and fell on the ice which covered the pavement in his back yard, Saturday morning, striking his side against the end of the back porch door and breaking three of his ribs. He was laid up for two days, but is able to go about again.

The meeting at the Southern Presbyterian Church will be protracted still farther. The interest is great, a large number of professions. Services to-night and to-morrow as usual.

Rev. Henry M. Scudder comes Monday to relieve Dr. Hendrick in the work.

Messrs. E. Whitesides, W. S. Dehoney and D. L. Haly, the Board of School Trustees, went to Louisville Tuesday to examine the School Buildings in that city with a view to informing themselves as to the most improved and convenient structures, preparatory to selecting plans for the new school building which will be erected in this city early in the summer.

Keynote to Health.
Health is wealth. Wealth means independence. The Keynote is Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup, the best Cough Syrup in the world. An exceedingly pleasant occasion was given at the residence of Mr. John W. Payne, on Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Gibbs, of Gogginsville, Georgia. Quite a large company of young people were present, and enjoyed themselves greatly until a late hour.

The most delicious individual ices, and which are gotten up in the most artistic manner, for parties, receptions, &c., are furnished by Messrs. Howard Bros. These enterprising young men are making a specialty of this portion of their business and will fill all orders promptly at the lowest figures. Go and see them instead of going to Louisville for anything in their line.

The water mains at the corner of Main and Lewis streets, and at two different points on Ann street, burst yesterday afternoon and a force was employed last night to mend the breaks.—Capital of Wednesday.

A lead joint blew out of the Main street line, at the intersection of Lewis street, Tuesday afternoon, but if there were any breaks in the main pipe on Ann street they have never been discovered by the Superintendent of the water works.

On Saturday last a certain article of minor value was missed from one of the public offices on Capitol Square, soon after the visit of a certain Kleptomaniac. Now if said Klepto, will quietly return said article the matter will be dropped; otherwise it will be turned over to the proper officers of the law. Said article is worth more—ten times more—than a drink of whisky, and said Klepto, had better redeem and return it to the owner.

We understand there is a slick citizen going around among the colored people of the city offering to sell them four suits of clothes, a silk dress, and a lot of calico for $80, giving them three years' time in which to pay the amount, taking a mortgage on their property to secure the same. We would suggest to our colored friends to fight shy of this fellow, for they can rest assured it is a scheme to swindle them out of their little homes, for which they have worked so hard. He may talk fair enough now, but a mortgage on your home means that you will lose it in the end. The police should look this gentleman up.

Most Excellent.

Mr. J. M. Norris, an old resident of Rome, Ga., says, that he had been badly troubled with Kidney Complaint for a great many years and with Rheumatism for three years; at times could scarcely walk and had tried many remedies without benefit, until he began taking Electric Bitters and anointing his hands and feet with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. This treatment afforded him great relief and he strongly recommends Electric Bitters to all who suffer with Kidney Complaints, or need a Blood Purifier. Sold by J. M. Coombe.

Neuralgia.

CAN BE CURED WITHOUT THE USE OF OPIUM OR MORPHINE!

The Medical Brief, published at St. Louis, says: "Used Tangleline in a case of Neuralgia of the eye, which had resisted all treatment. This was the first time since the patient has enjoyed perfect freedom from her complaint."

—A case given Tangleline a fair trial in Neuralgia. It was my first case of the kind. The medicine cured that case. A. P. HARRIS, Brighton, Ill.

—I consider Tangleline the best preparation for Neuralgia I have ever used. C. W. TAYLOR, M. D., Knoxville, Mo.
